Forecast For Northwest England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Sunday 12 Dec 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Cloudy with strong winds easing overnight.

This Evening and Tonight:
Breezy for all Sunday evening, but very windy along the coast with local gales for exposed locations in the north. Winds easing in the early hours of Monday. Otherwise, a cloudy, frost-free night with spells of drizzle and light rain. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Monday:
Turning brighter through Monday morning and staying largely dry. Potential for cloud and rain to fringe back into southern areas through the afternoon. Feeling cooler than Sunday with light winds. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Mild and largely cloudy throughout the week. Generally dry but the cloud thick enough to produce some patchy drizzle. Risk of morning fog developing under any cloud breaks.
